BIG CROWD PRESENT.

At Inter-Fraternity Fair in Howland Hall Last Night.

"Hibernian" night and the second night of the inter-fraternity fair conducted in Howland hall this week by the combined Catholic organizations drew quite as large crowd as the previous night when the hall was filled to its capacity. An excellent program containing several numbers of high order lent pleasing variety to the affair and was followed by the usual program of dances. The ever popular Riley's orchestra furnished music for this feature.

The participants in the program and their pieces were as follows: Solo, James Bennett; solo, William Robertson; solo, William Hurry; solo, Alex. McKenzie. All of these well known vocalists took part in the "Dokey" minstrel recently produced and the applause accorded them was as enthusiastic last night as on the previous occasion.

Tonight's program will be in charge of the society of St. John the Baptist of America. No pains have been spared to make it equal to that of the two preceding nights and among these taking part may be seen local artists of conceded ability. The numbers follow: Vocal solo, Mr. Beaupre; reading, Dr. F. M. Lynde; vocal solo, Mrs. Edwin W. Bruce. Mrs. Bruce will be accompanied by Prof. Hathaway of Montpelier seminary. Dancing will follow with music by Riley's orchestra.

You can buy this and occupy one part and receive enough out of what you could rent to pay interest. In just a few years it will be yours. Let us show this property to you. You will like paying rent to yourself. See us. The D. A. Perry Real Estate agency, Howland-Cave building, Barre, Vt.

Men, women and children will be interested in the announcement. "Wonderhose" are the best guaranteed hose on the market. In fact it is unfair to "Wonderhose" to compare them with any other guaranteed hose. "Wonderhose" are soft and silky. There is quality in every thread and in every detail of their manufacture. Merely because hose are guaranteed is no reason why you should buy them. True service is an essential feature, but you require above all, nice appearing, perfect fitting and fine quality. "Wonderhose" meets all these requirements. C. S. Andrews will tell you more of "Wonderhose" in this paper Friday next. Watch the "Wonderhose" ads. of the People's Shoe store.

"Tag Day at Silver Gulch" (Lubin)—Depicts the arrival of a minister and his daughter at Silver Gulch. As may be supposed, church affairs did not flourish in competition with the saloon, and when tag day was announced, to raise money to build a church, opposition became pronounced, as it meant perforation with a bullet, to buy a tag. Bill admired the daughter, and when he discovered her downcast condition, he bought the first tag, and was about to persuade the others to do likewise, when the minister arrived. He had other plans, and carefully removing his coat, he proceeded to give Hank, the ring-leader of the opposition, the worst licking he ever had. Hank suddenly discovered that he needed a tag, and he assisted Bill in persuading other people that they needed tags, too. The scene of the licking is one of the best in a western film for many days, and it fairly sets one's nerves to tingling to see it. It's at the Dreamland.
